INDEPENDENT PRODUCT DESIGN PROJECTS

RUCA OS & RUCA OS Mobile Companion

2026–Present

Self-directed, unpaid product design and prototyping.

- Defined product concepts, navigation, information hierarchy, and interaction requirements for a desktop PC interface and an Android companion.
- Developed desktop experiences around telemetry, diagnostics, media, and system controls; adapted mobile flows for touch rather than duplicating the desktop layout.
- Specified interface states for live, stale, unavailable, and unknown information, with attention to connection feedback and consistent command behavior across devices.
- Used Figma and AI-assisted development workflows to iterate on prototypes, review implementation against requirements, and document acceptance criteria and limitations.
- Presented a public product simulation with explicitly labeled demonstration data, separate from local hardware-connected functionality.
